Members who drop and then renew...

If renewal takes place within two years from the drop date a reinstatement fee of $100 will be assessed.

Builder members will be required to retake education classes to attain builder status if renewal takes place after two year drop date.

BCHBA CODE OF ETHICS

The members of this Association shall be limited to those persons and firms who shall subscribe to the following Code of Ethics:

A. Members of the Brown County Home Builders Association believe and affirm that:
(1) Home ownership can and should be within reach of every American family.
(2) American homes should be well-designed, well constructed, and well located in attractive communities, with educational, recreational, religious and shopping facilities accessible to all.
(3) American homes should be built under the free American enterprise system.

B. To achieve these goals, we pledge allegiance to the following principles and policies:
(1) Our paramount responsibility is to our customer, our community, and our country.
(2) Honesty is our guiding business policy.
(3) Health, safety, and sanitation standards in compliance with applicable building codes shall be built into every home.
(4) All members shall deal fairly with their respective employees, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and customers.
(5) As members of a progressive industry, we encourage research to develop new materials, new building techniques, new building equipment, and improved methods of home financing to the end that every home purchaser may get the greatest value possible for every dollar.
(6) All sound legislative proposals affecting our industry and the people we serve shall have our informed and vigorous support.
(7) We hold inviolate the free enterprise system and the American Way of Life. We pledge our support to our fellow members, our local, state and national associations and all related industries concerned with the preservation of legitimate rights and freedoms.

C. We assume the responsibilities freely and solemnly, mindful that they are part of our obligation as members of the Brown County Home Builders Association.

Builder Member:

Any person, firm, or corporation currently in the business of shelter construction, land development, or remodeling; and agrees to subscribe to the Code of Ethics and Bylaws of this Association; and is of good character and business reputation; and has successfully completed the required education programs as described in the Brown County Home Builders Associations' Policy and Procedure manual for builder members as designated by the Brown County Home Builders Association Board of Directors, shall be eligible to be a Builder member.

This person, firm, or corporation must have successfully completed and filed with the Wisconsin Department of Commerce a Business Credential Application and have been granted a Dwelling Contractor Certification (DCC). In addition a BCHBA builder member of record must complete and file a Wisconsin Department of Commerce Credential Application and be granted a Dwelling Contractor Qualifier Certification (DCQ). Also, according to the Wisconsin Department of Commerce, a builder must renew his DCQ and is contingent upon the builder qualifier obtaining at least 12 hours of acceptable continuing education three months prior to the expiration date of their credential, which is two years after the start date of the credential. If at any time the DCQ and/or DCC become invalid that Builder's membership will be transferred to an Associate membership until such time that the DCQ and/or DCC are deemed valid by the Wisconsin Department of Commerce and verified by the BCHBA.

To be eligible to participate in the Spring Showcase of New Homes and the Fall Showcase of New Homes a member must be an approved Builder member prior to the final deadline to withdraw an entry. The member must also have held a membership in the BCHBA for a minimum of one (1) year prior to the event.
